Introduction

- 1. The Rolling Hills Golf Club (RHGC or Club) is maintained for the benefit, enjoyment, health and wellbeing of all members, guests and visitors. The Clubhouse, Course, Driving Range, Golf Shop, land and associated buildings (hereafter collectively called 'the Course") are an extension of the Saudi Aramco workplace; therefore, the highest standards of behavior and respect for others is expected from all persons.
- 2. This Code of Conduct establishes the expectation of acceptable behavior, the procedure for complaints, investigation and penalties in regard to persons using the facilities, or attending an event, at the Course.
- 3. This Code of Conduct does not displace or supersede any Saudi Aramco Code and is an addition to the terms of employment, Human Resource Manual and/or other requirement established by Saudi Aramco, hereafter called "the company".

Background

- 1. Under the Rules of Golf: Standards of Player Conduct (1.2a): All players are expected to play in the spirit of the game:
 - Acting with integrity, for example, by following the Rules, applying all penalties and being honest in all aspects of play;
 - Showing consideration to others, for example, by playing at a prompt pace, looking out for the safety of others, and not distracting the play of another player;
 - Taking good care of the course, for example, by repairing ball-marks on greens, filing in divots with sand, raking bunkers, and not causing unnecessary damage to the course e.g. taking a cart (powered or push) between a green side bunker and the putting green or driving a power cart onto a green/tee box.
- 2. There is no penalty under the Rules of Golf for breaching Rule 1.2a, however the RHGC Committee may disqualify and/or sanction a player for acting contrary to the spirit of the game or has committed serious misconduct. Penalties other than disqualification may only be imposed for player misconduct if those penalties are adopted as part of a Code of Conduct established by the Committee, as per 1.2b (Rules of Golf).
- 3. It is important to note, Article IX, 9.1 of the RHGC Constitution & By-Laws, the acceptance of Membership in the Club shall bind each Member, among other things, to uphold this Code of Conduct, other rules of the Club and in Recreation Manual chapter on "Company Grass Golf Course" and to accept and enforce all rules and decisions of the Board as may be issued.
- 4. Under Rule 1.2b (Rules of Golf), Rolling Hills Golf Club (RHGC), a member of Saudi Aramco Golf Association (SAGA), has established the following Code of Conduct.

Code of Conduct

- 1. This Code of Conduct will apply to all members/golfers during Competitions, Tournaments, and General Play, or whenever the Course is being used. Members, players and visitors may be counselled, warned, penalized, disqualified, or sanctioned, as deemed fit, for breaching this Code of Conduct.
- 2. A high standard of behavior is expected at all times when members, their guests and/or visitors are at the Course.
- 3. Members, guests and visitors are bound by this Code of Conduct upon:
 - Payment of the RHGC membership and/or green fees;
 - Payment of an entrance fee for an event at the Course;
 - When using the Course facilities for any other reason.
- 4. All players have a positive obligation to monitor the behavior of their playing partners on the Course and to ensure the Code of Conduct is upheld. This means, all players must be proactive, and demonstrate ethical leadership by advising, educating, and guiding other players on course etiquette, and this code.
- 5. As stated above, each player within a group has a positive obligation to monitor all partners regarding compliance to the code of conduct in Tournament or General Play. If a player is deemed to have failed, in whole or in part, to rake a bunker, the entire playing group shall be held responsible; therefore, all players will face warning and/or sanction by the RHGC Disciplinary Committee and/or the RHGC Tournament Committee.
- 6. It is hoped all players will self-regulate the rules of golf and this code, without the need to refer matters to the RHGC Board and/or Recreation Services Division (RSD).

Appendix I

- 1. Serious Misconduct The phrase "serious misconduct" in Rule 1.2a of the Rules of Golf is intended to cover player misconduct that is so far removed from the expected norm in golf that the most severe sanction of removing a player from the Competition is justified, examples include, but are not limited to dishonesty, deliberately interfering with another player's rights, or endangering the safety of others.
- 2. Example actions by a player likely to be considered serious misconduct include:
 - Deliberately causing serious damage to any part of the course;
 - Deliberate moving of tee-markers or boundary stakes;
 - Throwing any object, including club, towards a player, or other person;
 - Deliberately distracting other players while they are making a stroke;
 - Removing loose impediments or movable obstructions to disadvantage another player after that other player has asked him or her to leave them in place;
 - Repeatedly refusing to lift a ball at rest when it interferes with another player in stroke play;
 - Deliberately playing away from the hole and then towards the hole to assist the player's partner (such as helping the player's partner learn the break on the putting green);
 - Deliberately not playing in accordance with the Rules and potentially gaining a significant advantage by doing so, despite incurring a penalty for a breach of the relevant Rule;
 - Repeatedly using vulgar or offensive language;
 - Using a handicap that has been established for the purpose of providing an unfair advantage or using the round being played to establish such a handicap.

Examples of actions by a player that, although involving misconduct, are unlikely to be considered serious misconduct include:

- Slamming a club to the ground, damaging the club and causing minor damage to the turf;
- Throwing a club towards a golf bag that unintentionally hits another person;
- Carelessly distracting another player making a stroke.
